Additional Information

Comments with respect to any item above:

Short Answer Essay Questions -- Service and Faith

List or briefly describe your church and/or volunteer involvement. What have you learned about yourself through these involvements?

The Sisters of Notre Dame mission in Uganda has a specifically Roman Catholic orientation. Not all volunteers need to be Catholic. You would be expected to participate to some extent in religious and liturgical activities. Are you comfortable with participating in Catholic services? Comment on your faith tradition and the integration of faith into your life and work.

Briefly explain why you are interested in serving with the Sisters of Notre Dame in Uganda.

Short Answer Essay Questions -- Travel Experiences

List or briefly describe any overseas travel or living experiences.

Conditions in western Uganda are “rural.” Please indicate what, if any, experience you have had with camping and “roughing it.”

The Uganda mission is in a remote area. Traveling to other regions is not simple, and phone and electronic communications are limited. How do you think this will affect you?

Work Skills and Interests

Volunteers in the mission need to be adaptable and ready to fill in as needed. Below are some of the possible service opportunities. Please indicate three areas of interest.

About the Notre Dame International Volunteer Program

The Notre Dame International Volunteer Program is an opportunity to join with the Sisters of Notre Dame as they serve the people of the rural village of Buseesa, Uganda and the students enrolled in school at St. Julie Mission. The mission was established over ten years ago and is currently staffed by Sisters of Notre Dame from Uganda, the United States and Germany. Their ministries in this isolated community include a preschool and day school for local children, a boarding school, faith sharing groups and a micro-finance program. Volunteers support these programs in a variety of ways and participate in local liturgies. Ideal candidates for the NDIV program are mature, independent and strongly rooted in a faith that calls them to action by serving persons who are poor.
